3. ORIGINS MATTER

WHERE ARE YOU FROM?

YOUR CHOICE

This is where you were shaped. A place that left marks, taught rules, or burned bridges you still feel. It doesn't have to exist anymore.

- A high-security borough in The Dark
- A half-burnt block of the ArcD
- A factory dormitory in the Tech District
- A ghetto or glass-farm in the Market
- A free theatre in a quiet corner of the EntD
- A booming city built on the face of a dead god
- A subterranean metropolis somewhere in the Infinitum

Write the place that made you.

ORIGIN

What did you lose here, and what did you learn to survive it?

WHERE DO YOU STAY?

YOUR CHOICE

This is where you live now. It might be home. It might be temporary. It might be somewhere the city hasn't noticed yet.

Your current spot could be:

- A squat, safehouse, or backroom anywhere in DimmC
- A rooftop, burrow, or crawlspace in a high rise tenement
- A vehicle, mobile rig, or ship berth that can dock anywhere
- Somewhere legal, illegal, or forgotten
- A free theatre in a quiet corner of the EntD

NOTE

Home is where trouble finds you.
