0. CITIZEN FILE

Thump is a PC created for dreams in Dimm City by an actual dreamer. Their personality, looks, vibe, equipment, and skills are all chosen by the dreamer themselves. You can do the same by filling in the blanks on a character profile to create your very own character. For many dreamers, this is one of the most exciting parts of this experience: thinking about a character you want to play and designing them for the dream to come.

This chapter will guide you through all the choices you need to make to help you fill in the blanks and create a unique and interesting character. Don't worry about making mistakes or doing something wrong, just try to have fun with it and let your imagination do the work.

IMAGE IS EVERYTHING

Before You Fill Anything In:

Don't start with numbers. Start with a body, a vibe, and a reason you're still breathing in Dimm City. This file isn't about optimization, it's about creating a CREATUREPUNK. If a choice would make Dimm City react to you, it belongs here. If it only makes you stronger, it probably comes later.

METROPOLIS IN THE MIST

each other like broken teeth.

Five shattered pieces, one ugly whole: Dimm City.

Its citizens call themselves Dimmers. They claw out a life among alien junk, street magic, corporate predators, gutter cults, black markets, and creatures too stubborn to stay dead.

You and your pack are here to take what you can and level what you can't.

Every session is a Dream. What you do during it matters. Make enemies. Break bones. Trade favors. Dig up what should've stayed buried. Leave fresh corpses in ditches and teeth in somebody else's floor.

What happens in your Dream doesn't disappear when you wake up.

So get in there. Get filthy. Lose something important. Crawl out with something worse.

The Dream ends. Dimm City holds a grudge.

CREATUREPUNK

CREATUREPUNK is what happens when evolution takes a sledgehammer to the face and the survivors crawl out growling.

You're spliced-up, hex-stained, glitch-ridden, stitched together with scavenged tech, gutter magic, and leftovers from wars nobody won. Your kind's been running the monoverse since before humanity finger-painted on cave walls.

The city don't love you. The corps don't see you. The gods don't pick up.

Good. That makes you dangerous.

Creaturepunk is meat you can modify, magic you can weaponize, and technology you can rip apart and bolt back together weird. Bodies change. Species mingle. Civilizations rot.

Something new always crawls out of the wreckage.
